What did you like best about the recitation instruction?

Comments
He talked about things in class based on what the class did not understand
It was very easy to ask questions and get direct attention/help with confusing topics.
Very knowledgeable on material. Went out of his way to make study guides and reviewed content thoroughly. Put so much extra time and effort into class. 10/10 would recommend. Best TA I've had at Pitt.
Taylor was very prepared for recitation and always did a good job to make sure everyone was on the same page.
Always had problems that went along with lecture and were good practice for the exam type questions.
He did a great job of going over difficult topics and providing clear explanations.
He was nice and he knew what he was doing in terms of teaching
Taylor is very prepared and always has good examples to clarify troubling topics from lecture. He also includes practice problems and simulations that are helping to my learning as well. I would not be doing as well in ECON 0100 if it was not for this recitation instructor.
I liked the laid back approach, which lowered stress, enhancing ability to understand difficult concepts.
I can't really comment because I did not really attend the recitation. However, Taylor Weidman definitely seems to be prepared and active. I get a lot of emails from him and sometimes study guides too. He does really seem helpful.
He had excellent reviews for tests.
Always prepared for the recitation that week based off of lectures that week.
Taylor was very nice and seemed easy to talk to and ask questions
He answered all questions and made things easy to follow.

Plenty of clarification and examples

If you were running this recitation, what would you do differently?

Comments
nothing
I would move a little faster going through the examples so that we could get more questions in
NA
Nothing.
Do more exam example questions, instead of going over concepts.
He felt a little difficult to relate to, like he was hiding information from us. If it were me I would be a little more open and relatable. The class also felt a little stale/stagnant and I would have enjoyed something that flowed easier.
Probably nothing
Nothing.
I am not sure, maybe hand out work sheets for later reference.
